The Hope

In the Jewish heart
A Jewish spirit still sings
And the eyes look east
Toward Zion
Our hope is not lost
Our hope of two thousand years
To be a free nation in our land
In the land of Zion and Jerusalem

Tehilim 42: As a Deer Pants

42:1 For the Leader; Maskil of the sons of Korah.

42:2 Like a hind crying for water, my soul cries for You, O God;

42:3 my soul thirsts for God, the living God; O when will I come to appear before God!

42:4 My tears have been my food day and night; I am ever taunted with, “Where is your God?”

42:5 When I think of this, I pour out my soul: how I walked with the crowd, moved with them, the festive throng, to the House of God with joyous shouts of praise.

42:6 Why so downcast, my soul, why disquieted within me? Have hope in God; I will yet praise Him for His saving presence.

42:7 O my God, my soul is downcast; therefore I think of You in this land of Jordan and Hermon, in Mount Mizar

42:8 where deep calls to deep in the roar of Your cataracts; all Your breakers and billows have swept over me.

42:9 By day may the LORD vouchsafe His faithful care, so that at night a song to Him may be with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

42:10 I say to God, my rock, “Why have You forgotten me, why must I walk in gloom, oppressed by my enemy?”

42:11 Crushing my bones, my foes revile me, taunting me always with, “Where is your God?”

42:12 Why so downcast, my soul, why disquieted within me? Have hope in God; I will yet praise Him, my ever-present help, my God.

Unetaneh Tokef Prayer

All mankind will pass before You like members of the flock. Like a shepherd pasturing his flock, making sheep pass under his staff, so shall You cause to pass, count, calculate, and consider the soul of all the living; and You shall apportion the fixed needs of all Your creatures and inscribe their verdict.

On Rosh Hashanah it is inscribed and on Yom Kippur it will be sealed how many will pass from this earth and how many will be created. In the style popularize by Leonard Cohen we affirm:

And who by fire, who by water
Who in the sunshine, who in the night time
Who-- by high ordeal, who-- by common trial
Who in your merry merry month of May
Who by very slow decay
And who shall I say--- is calling?

And who in her lonely slip, who by barbiturate
Who in these realms of love, who by something blunt
Who -- by avalanche, who --- by powder
Who for his greed, who for his hunger
And who --- shall I say --- is calling?

And who by brave assent, who by accident
Who in solitude, who in this mirror
Who by his lady's command, who by his own hand
Who in mortal chains, who in power
And who shall I say is calling?

MALU ASAMEINU BAR

Mal'u asameinu bar viy'kaveinu yayin,
Bateinu homim, homim mitinokot
Uvehem'teinu porah - hey!

Mah od tevak'shi me'itanu mechorah,

Mah od tevak'shi me'itanu mechorah,
Ve'ain, ve'ain adayin?

FILL OUR SILOS WITH GRAIN

Fill up our barns with grain,
our cellars with wine,
Our houses bursting with babes
And our cattle fruitful – hey!

What else can you ask of us, o homeland,
That is not yet, not yet here?
What else can you ask of us, o homeland,
That is not yet, not yet here?

(Chorus) Harvest festival, harvest tide,
May it multiply and prosper.

In the field the harvest's done,
In the vineyard the grapes are gathered.
And now, with autumn in the air,
Let's rejoice in song - it's harvest-tide. (chorus)

May both yeoman and farmer
Have peace and rain this coming year,
May every field have many hands:
Hail the harvest-tide, good cheer. (chorus)

Lord of the Universe

The Lord of the Universe who reigned
before anything was created
When all was made by His will,
Then He was acknowledged as
King

And when all shall end He still
all alone shall reign.
He was, He is, and He shall be,
in glory.

And He is one, and there's no other to compare or join with Him;
He is without beginning,
without end,
and to Him belongs all
dominion and power.

He is my God, my living God.
To Him I flee in time of grief.
He is my miracle and my refuge
He answers the day I that I call.

To Him I commit my spirit in the time of sleep and awakening. And when my spirit leaves, I know, that God is with me
and I shall not fear.
